2. ELIGIBLE BIDDERS: All eligible bidders must meet the following minimum eligibility requirements:
 - a) Demonstrate a familiarity with the EDPNC and its Business Development initiatives.
 - b) Have a minimum of 10 years of successful experience providing trade promotion services for goods and services.
 - c) Have an established trade promotion/consulting practice office in Asia-Pacific.
 - d) Demonstrate experience assisting US corporations in exporting to Asia-Pacific countries.
 - e) In-depth knowledge of Asia-Pacific business practices including import, distribution, legal and financial systems.
 - f) Fluency in speaking, writing and reading English and some other Asia-Pacific languages.
 - g) Have excellent references.
3. SUBMISSION OF PROPOSAL: The proposal shall consist of the following parts as outlined in this RFP:
 - a) Basic Data on Bidder -- Qualifications and Experience
 - b) Proposal to Implement the Statement of Work
 - c) Budget - Cost of Services

To be considered complete, a signed Assurances, Representations, and Authorization to Release Information form must accompany the response to this RFP.

4. REJECTION OF PROPOSALS: Proposals shall be rejected and not reviewed by the EDPNC for any of the following reasons:
 - a) The proposal is not received at the EDPNC on or before 5:00 p.m. (Eastern Standard Time) on Wednesday, February 21, 2024 at its offices located at 150 Fayetteville Street, Suite 1200, Raleigh, NC 27601.
 - b) The Bidder fails to respond to any part of this RFP or does not provide information in the format required.
 - c) The proposal is not signed by an authorized representative of the Bidder.

- d) There is evidence that the Bidder engaged in unfair bidding procedures.
 - e) Financial insolvency of the Bidder.
 - f) The Bidder fails to comply with the minimum eligibility requirements of Section D(2) above and is determined to be ineligible.
5. LIMITATION: This RFP does not commit the EDPNC to award a contract or to pay costs incurred by bidder in the preparation of a proposal to this RFP. The EDPNC may accept other than the lowest bid, waive minor informalities, and award a contract based only on the written proposal without any discussions with bidder. Issuance of a contract will be subject to the approval of EDPNC's CEO.
6. REQUESTS FOR CLARIFICATION: Bidders are invited to submit written questions and requests for clarifications regarding the RFP. Bidders may also submit suggestions for changes to the requirements of this RFP. The questions, requests for clarifications, or suggestions must be in writing and received by the EDPNC Contact Person before 5:00 p.m., eastern daylight savings time, prior to Wednesday, February 21, 2024. Oral questions will not be permitted. If the questions, requests for clarifications, or suggestions pertain to a specific section of the RFP, the page and section number(s) must be referenced. Written responses to questions, requests for clarifications, or suggestions will be sent to vendors who received RFP's. The EDPNC's written responses will be considered part of the RFP. If the EDPNC decides to adopt a suggestion, the EDPNC will issue an amendment to the RFP.
7. AMENDMENTS TO RFP; DOWNLOADING FROM INTERNET:
- a) The EDPNC reserves the right to amend the RFP at any time. The Bidder shall acknowledge receipt of an amendment in its proposal. If the amendment occurs after the closing date for receipt of bid proposals, the EDPNC may, in its sole discretion, allow Bidders to amend their bid proposals in response to the EDPNC's amendment if necessary. The Bidder may amend its bid proposal. The amendment must be in writing, signed by the Bidder and received by time set for the receipt of proposals. Vendors who submit proposals in advance of the deadline may withdraw, modify, and resubmit proposals at any time prior to the deadline for submitting proposals. Vendors must notify the EDPNC Contact Person in writing if they wish to withdraw their proposals.
 - b) All amendments will be posted on the EDPNC's web page at <https://edpnc.com/about-the-edpnc/>. Each Bidder is advised to check this home page periodically for amendments to this RFP, particularly if the Bidder downloaded the RFP from the Internet as the Bidder may not automatically receive amendments. If the Bidder received this RFP as a result of a written request to the EDPNC, the Bidder will automatically receive amendments.
8. COPYRIGHTS: By submitting a bid proposal, the Bidder agrees that the EDPNC may copy the bid proposal for purposes of facilitating the evaluation of the bid proposal or to respond to requests for public records. The Bidder consents to such copying by submitting a bid proposal and warrants that such copying will not violate the rights of any third party. The EDPNC shall have the right to use ideas or adaptations of ideas that are presented in the bid proposals.

9. CONTRACT:

- a) The EDPNC reserves the right to either award a contract without further negotiation or to negotiate contract terms with the selected Contractor if the best interests of the State of North Carolina and EDPNC would be served.
- b) The successful Bidder must, in a timely manner, enter into a contract with the EDPNC to implement the services contemplated by this RFP. This contract will include, but not be limited to, terms and conditions that clarify the respective roles and responsibilities of the Bidder and EDPNC. Representative subjects that will be included in a final contract include, but are not limited to, the following provisions: payment limitations; work authorization procedures; default and termination terms; indemnification requirements; identification of key personnel; intellectual property rights; non-appropriation or reduction in funding; and clarification that North Carolina law will govern this contract.
- c) It is expected that a contract between the Bidder and EDPNC will be executed within 5 working days of the notification of the award. Failure of the successful Bidder to agree to the terms of a contract within this time period may be grounds for the EDPNC to award the contract to another Bidder.

10. PROPOSAL REVIEW: The EDPNC will initially review all proposals received for completeness. Completed proposals will be evaluated and rated by an internal EDPNC evaluation committee.

The following criteria, not necessarily listed in order of importance, will be used to evaluate proposals:

- Proposer's project approach and methodology;
- Quality of project work plan;
- Description of the proposed deliverables;
- Project management and internal controls;
- Firm's and staff qualifications and experience;
- Business references;
- Administrative capacity to provide the services;
- Financial capability; and
- Candidates with expertise and experience in specific industry/products sectors should so indicate in their proposal and delineate their expertise and experience.

These criteria are general in nature and may be used to develop a more detailed evaluation work sheet. The EDPNC reserves the right to evaluate financial capability of any or all bidders to satisfactorily complete the requirements of this RFP.

11. PERIOD OF PERFORMANCE: The period of performance will be from July 1, 2024 through June 30, 2025. In the event that the contractor selected through this RFP does not complete the contract, due to termination or any other reason, EDPNC reserves the right to negotiate with the next highest-ranking bidder(s) to complete the contract period without releasing an additional RFP.
12. OPTION TO EXTEND: Based on the availability of funds and at the EDPNC's discretion, effective contract performance, and the needs of the EDPNC, the contract may be extended for up to three (3) years, in one-year increments.
13. PUBLIC RECORDS AND REQUESTS FOR CONFIDENTIAL TREATMENT:
 - a) The EDPNC may treat all information submitted by a Bidder as public information following the conclusion of the selection process unless the Bidder properly requests that information be treated as confidential at the time of submitting the bid proposal.
 - b) The EDPNC's release of information is governed by North Carolina Public Records Laws. Bidders are encouraged to familiarize themselves with this public records laws before submitting a proposal.
 - c) Any request for confidential treatment of information must be included in the transmittal letter with the Bidder's bid proposal. In addition, the Bidder must enumerate the specific grounds in North Carolina Public Records Laws or other applicable laws which support treatment of the material as confidential and explain why disclosure is not in the best interest of the public. The request for confidential treatment of information must also include the name, address, and telephone number of the person authorized by the Bidder to respond to any inquiries by the EDPNC concerning the confidential status of the materials. Any bid proposal submitted which contains confidential information must be conspicuously marked on the outside as containing confidential information, and each page upon which confidential information appears must be conspicuously marked as containing confidential information. Identification of the entire bid proposal as confidential may be deemed non-responsive and disqualify the Bidder.
 - d) If the Bidder designates any portion of the RFP as confidential, the Bidder must also submit one copy of the bid proposal from which the confidential information has been excised. The confidential material must be excised in such a way as to allow the public to determine the general nature of the material removed and to retain as much of the bid proposal as possible. The EDPNC will treat the information marked confidential as confidential information to the extent such information is determined confidential under North Carolina Public Records Laws or other applicable laws by a court of competent jurisdiction. In the event the EDPNC receives a request for information marked confidential, written notice shall be given to the Bidder seven calendar days prior to the release of the information to allow the Bidder to seek injunctive relief pursuant to the North Carolina Public Record Laws.

- e) The Bidder's failure to request confidential treatment of material will be deemed by the EDPNC as a waiver of any right to confidentiality, which the Bidder may have had.
14. DISPOSITION OF BID PROPOSALS: At the conclusion of the selection process, the contents of all bid proposals will be in the public domain and be open to inspection by interested parties subject to exceptions provided in North Carolina Public Records Laws or other applicable laws.
15. NONDISCRIMINATION: The EDPNC does not discriminate in the contract award process on the basis of sex, age, race, religion, color, national origin or disability.
16. EDPNC CONTACT PERSON: Any questions concerning this RFP should be directed via email to Mike Hubbard, Director - International Trade mike.hubbard@edpnc.com

SECTION E - BASIC DATA ON BIDDER - Qualifications and Experience

- All proposals must include the following basic data about the bidder:
